by adding the following new section immediately preceding the last section and by renumbering the subsequent section accordingly:

SECTION _____. A §501(c)(3) organization authorized to conduct an annual event during the 2004 -2005 annual event period may change the location of the annual event if the location listed on the annual event application is subsequently unavailable due to destruction, inaccessibility, closure or general unsafe conditions of such location during the time in which the annual event was to be conducted and if the following conditions are satisfied:

(1) Written notice is given to the secretary, Tennessee bureau of investigation, district attorney for the judicial district in which the annual event is to be conducted and each chief law enforcement officer of the county or municipality in which the annual event is to be conducted stating that the listed location is unavailable, the reason for unavailability, and the new location; and

(2) Sufficient public notice is given by means of posting notice on the organization's website or by publication in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the annual event will be conducted.
